'Touching' complaint under investigation at child care center

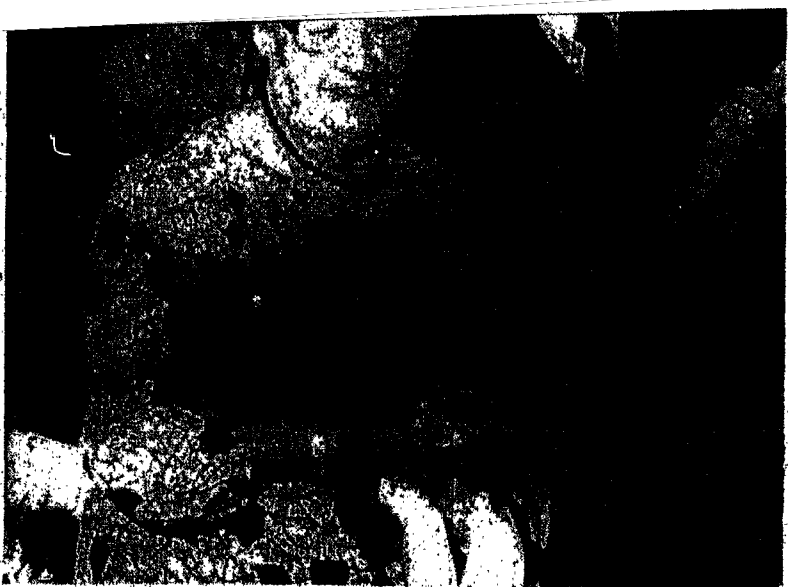

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Parents remained seated in stunned silence Saturday after being told no questions would be answered in connection with a complaint of 'touching' against a day care worker at the Methodist Children's Center. Board of Directors Chairman James Mahler told some 50 parents at the meeting that due to the subject he could not answer any questions. At the beginning of the meeting Mahler read a brief statement from the board of directors saying, "The alleged act is supposed to have occurred away from the premises of the Children's Center."

"This is something that we take quite seriously. This complaint is being looked into as thoroughly as possible by the Welfare Department, the Sheriff's Department as well as our Children's Center," Mahler continued. "The Center is most anxious to resolve this matter as quickly as possible," he read. "This complaint is both regrettable and unfortunate, but we can assure you that it will serve to strengthen our goal of continued Christian child care." Several parents expressed their disappointment in the meeting which had been called by Center Director Wendy Rupp and the board of directors. Letters had been sent to the parents stating that the meeting had been called "in a sincere effort to inform you of this matter." The letter also stated that the worker had been placed on leave of absence until the matter was resolved. After the meeting parents gathered in groups both inside the church building and on the grounds, seeking among themselves the information that had not been provided in the meeting. One parent said that she was told before the meeting that there was nothing to it, but after talking with other parents she returned inside to question officials. "It just goes to show that anybody can fool you, I thought that she was a nice girl and that the center was a good child care center," one concerned parent said. Another parent added that last week she was told that only three children were involved but she has since found out that possibly seven children could be involved.

Wastewater board discusses personnel change

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District met informally Friday with representatives of the district's engineering firm to discuss timetables and a personnel change.

Ray Eaton, the engineer who had handled almost all of the district's business with Lewis-Eaton Partnership of Jackson, has left the firm.

According to John Longo Jr., chairman of the district board of directors, Eaton's departure is not expected to affect a proposed linkage of the Bay St. Louis and Waveland sewerage systems.

Instead of Eaton, the district will now handle its engineering matters through David E. Herndon, an environmental engineer with Reynolds, Smith and Hills, which is associated with Lewis-Eaton.

According to Bill Van Eecke, also of Reynolds, Smith and Hills, Herndon will take over Eaton's administrative duties for the district and will act as its liaison with John McCarty of the Mississippi Bureau of Pollution Control.

McCarty assists the district in matters requiring approval of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

In addition Friday, representatives of the two firms outlined plans and timetables for the proposed linkage.

The project is being funded through a combination of federal, state and local funding and is divided into five segments. Segment I, improvements on the existing Bay St. Louis sewage lagoon, is under construction with completion expected in mid-January.

Bids on Segment II, which includes installation of a pipeline leading from the Bay lagoon to the end of Gulfside Drive, where the Waveland wastewater treatment plant is located, will be opened Wednesday.

The final construction inspection for that phase of the project is scheduled for February 1987.

Improvements on the treatment plant, originally scheduled as a single segment, have been split into two parts, Segment III and Segment IV.

Grant applications for funding for both are expected to be submitted to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency early in 1986, with bidding scheduled for November of that year.

If the timetable remains unchanged, contract approval is expected in February of 1987 and the construction that will end in the linkage of the two city systems is expected to begin in March.

Segment V consists of the construction of a collection system for some of the more populated sections of the county and is expected to be finished by late 1989.

Also on Wednesday, the board is expected to meet with representatives of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors to discuss a proposed permitting system for individual on-site wastewater disposal systems in the county.

The proposal was made last month by officials from the State Board of Health and Bureau of Pollution Control after a group of local realtors complained that septic tanks are no longer being permitted.

Inability to obtain a Board of Health permit in the county, where central sewerage does not exist, allegedly has stopped property sales because federal financing can not be obtained without a health permit.

At a joint meeting of the wastewater board and the supervisors, Barry Royals of Bureau of Pollution Control proposed that the problem be solved by authorizing the district to permit alternative wastewater disposal systems until a long-term solution can be found.

Mahler refused to comment beyond the prepared statement and said that Rupp had been instructed not to discuss the matter by the board of directors.

The alleged incidents are believed to have taken place more than a year ago.

Sheriff Ronald Peterson said his department had been investigating the incident for approximately four weeks.

The investigation began following a request by the district attorney's office and the Welfare Department, he said.

Peterson declined to make any further comments on the incident, stating it was the department's policy to refrain from making statements when there have been no arrests.

"When our investigation is complete we will turn the information over to the district attorney's office," he said.

Assistant District Attorney J. P. Compretta said no official complaint had been filed at this time.

"When an informal complaint was made we asked the sheriff's office to investigate," he said.

These matters must be handled carefully because it can ruin someone's career and the reputation of a center, he added.

Following the completion of the investigation by the sheriff's office, the district attorney's office will determine if there are grounds to file charges, Compretta said.

Peterson said the investigation will probably continue until mid-January.

The next Grand Jury convenes Jan. 13.

Congratulations are in order for Mrs. Ina Piazza upon being selected as the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Citizen of the Year.

We have known Mrs. Piazza all our life and she has always been ready and willing to help anyone in need.

As the director of the Hancock County Emergency Relief, an agency of the United Way, she has helped develop a system copied by many other communities.

Her church, veterans, civic and community activities over the years, makes one wonder just where she gets the time and energy which she devotes to her fellow man.

We again congratulate Mrs. Piazza, just like your close family, we are very happy you have been recognized for your many years of devotion.

Thursday night at the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's annual installation of officers, another resident of Hancock County received a special award.

We are talking about our friend Clarice Gustin, who has served the last four years as executive director of the chamber.

She received a plaque recognizing her contributions to the chamber.

Many great things have happened at the chamber under the leadership of Clarice, and we hate to see her leave the chamber as executive director, yet, we sure wish her well in her new position.

Clarice will be still be working in Hancock County as an account executive for Diamondhead's Quality Inn. In her position she will still be promoting Hancock County.

Good luck, Clarice.

Outstanding Law Enforcement Officer of the Year went to Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Alvin Ladner at the chamber banquet.

Ladner's award was presented by Sheriff Ronald Peterson.

Ladner, a native of East Clermont Harbor, now he and his wife, Mary and daughter reside in Bay St. Louis.

He is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi and also holds a Masters Degree in Criminology from USM.

In his position as investigator, his work has led to some of the largest drug busts and seizures of cash in the state.

Friday Ladner noted milestone birthday according to Sheriff Peterson.

Congratulations to Alvin Ladner, you really deserve the honors, for a job well done.

Christmas is fast approaching and Bay Fire Chief Andrew Lizana reports his list for deserving children is rapidly growing in his Toys for Tots campaign.

Normally the fire chief said several organizations help by filling the wishes for a number of children, but this year they have cut down on the number of names they are selecting.

Anyone with toys in which their children have out-grown, and wanting to put them to good use, could drop them by the Bay St. Louis Fire Station, Old Spanish Trail and Bookter Street.

Chief Lizana tries to fill each child's need according to age and sex.

Firefighters are assisted by Bay St. Louis and Waveland patrolmen and Hancock County sheriff's deputies a few days before Christmas.

Lizana has made special arrangements with several merchants who give him a special price on purchase of toys.

Cash donations will not be turned down Lizana, said.

The Hancock County Doll and Toy Fund is one of the 15 agencies supported in part by the United Way.

GETTING READY FOR CHRISTMAS—Tamiko Johnston, right, Waveland Kmart employee wraps a package for Allie May Scott, center of Waveland while Audrey Narvez of Bay St. Louis waits her turn Saturday morning. The duo were among many local Senior Citizens Shopping-At-Home for Christmas gifts. Kmart

JENNY WON'T BE HOME TONIGHT

Her father will be waiting up for her. But, unlike many times before, she won't dash in with reports of a wonderful evening. Her friends invited her to go riding after the party. She hesitated because the driver had been drinking, but what could be wrong with one trip through town? Besides she needed a ride home. If only she could have called her parents...

Coach commends Tiger 'football family'

Letter to Editor
Sea Coast Echo

Dear Sir,

The 1985 football season is now over for the Bay High Tigers.

The season from Aug. 10 until Nov. 22 has been a very rewarding experience for me as well as for the Tigers. They were told that they were winners, they thought they were winners, and they are winners.

Many sacrifices must be made in order to be winners. They made those sacrifices. They gave of their time and dedicated themselves to success.

They practiced hard because they knew it was necessary. They did all that was requested of them.

Many of them will continue in Tiger football next year and I look forward to my continued association with them.

To the 1985-86 Tiger seniors—Jeffery Smith, Dennis Dear, Matt Fairconnetue, Jesse Parker, Willie Lewis, Stace McRaney, Trace MacRaney, Louis Burton, Butch Pierce, Craig Breland, Rob Compretta, Greg Thomas and Mutakabir Shabazz.— it has been a great pleasure to be associated with them.

They were great leaders. I know they will succeed in whatever they pursue in life.

To my sons Trace and Stace: You have made your dad very happy.

To the many fans, cheerleaders and to our administrators, I say, "Thank you so very much" for your support.

To Coach Williams and Coach Griffin, it has been a pleasure working with you. Coach Griffin, we will miss you.

Non-discriminatory enforcement essential in gambling law cases

Dec. 3, 1985
Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,

I have a few thoughts I'd like to share with you in regard to the recent "crackdown" on gambling in Bay St. Louis.

If a community is going to take a stand against gambling, I feel that all forms of gambling, including bingo, should be handled in the same manner.

We can't close our eyes to the truth, whether it's a roll of the dice back of town, bingo on Main Street, or roulette at a Mardi Gras party, it's still gambling.

It makes no difference if the gambling proceeds go to a good cause or for a bottle of wine, after all, two wrongs don't make a right. All forms of gambling prey on the poor, who can least afford to lose money in the first place, and also on the people who want something for nothing in life, a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, etc.

Yes, let's take a stand against gambling in Bay St. Louis, gambling of all kinds, and get back to the old-fashioned Christian values of working hard for our money and raising funds for good causes in honest and legitimate ways that don't further hurt the poor and the poor in spirit.

A final thought comes from God's word in Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all of these things shall be added unto you."

Sincerely,
Richard L. Finegan

From Mississippi Economic Council

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PARTICIPATION IN GOVERNMENT

Now is the time for citizen participation in government.

That thought occurs as we move into December, just a few weeks away from the January opening session of the 1986 Mississippi Legislature.

Legislators, as usual, are facing major issues of direct importance to all Mississippians. The problem of balancing the state's budget seems always to be with us. Then there are problems related to education, to transportation, to health care, and to economic development.

As citizens we have the opportunity, and the responsibility, to participate in the decision-making process of the Legislature. Our role is to provide information and to express opinions to legislators.

And the best time to do this is now—not after the session begins in January. As a suggestion, if you have information, or even an opinion, about state taxes, constitutional change, education, business regulation, or any other public issue, take the time now to discuss this with your senator or your representative.

Don't wait until the session begins and your legislator is bogged down in consideration of the usual two thousand bills and resolutions crossing his desk. Telephone him today, schedule a time to sit down with him, and tell him what's on your mind.

Do it today. You'll be glad you did. And so will he.

U.S. MANUFACTURE OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT: KEY TO NEW JOBS AND INDUSTRY

We all are, by now, painfully familiar with the consent decree handed down two years ago by a lone federal judge which led to the breakup of the telephone company.

Judge Harold Greene decided that the only way to deal with the Justice Department's charges that AT&T held a monopoly on the communications market was to split AT&T into one national company and seven regional ones.

We all are coming to terms with the results: phone bills whose thickness approach the size of telephone directories and whose costs for services seem to have multiplied in direct proportion to the thickness.

There are other valid consumer complaints including the confusion over the repair of equipment.

But I'm especially concerned over a U.S. government-imposed barrier in the decree that discriminates against our own U.S. companies. Specifically, the seven Bell operating companies, which hold 50 percent of all assets in the U.S. telecommunications industry, are prohibited by the judicial consent decree from manufacturing telecommunications equipment.

This U.S.-imposed barrier hurts our telecommunications trade balance by forcing equipment buyers in the U.S. and elsewhere to look to overseas manufacturers when they could look to Bell companies if these companies were allowed to manufacture the equipment. Incredibly enough, foreign manufacturers can locate telecommunications plants in the U.S. to make their products even though we prevent our own companies from competing.

The telecommunications industry is a "sunrise" industry in which the U.S. holds a big, technological lead, but despite telecommunications' importance to our economy, its trade deficit is doubling every year.

The U.S. quite properly criticizes foreign governments for imposing trade barriers that discriminate against U.S. telecommunications companies, but we have only ourselves to blame when our own courts impose trade barriers on domestic manufacturing.

I have introduced legislation in the House of Representatives which would remove this barrier by conditionally repealing the ban on telephone equipment manufacturing imposed on the regional Bell operating companies. Given this new freedom, I believe the Bell companies would engage in manufacturing in a variety of ways.

Drawing upon the success of American computer technology, the entrepreneur with innovative ideas and the resources of the Bell companies, our nation, with this barrier's repeal, would be strategically positioned to benefit as the world economy moves into the "information age."

Domestic jobs would be created; exports would be enhanced and even our national defense need for telecommunications would be improved.

I do not believe those who say we cannot produce competitively-priced, high quality telecommunications equipment domestically. The nay-sayers point to the recently announced decision by AT&T to close its Shreveport, Louisiana, plant.

This illustration does not explain why firms like Oki and Fujitsu are increasing production capacity in the U.S. Maybe we need only unleash some of the largest, most experienced telecommunications providers in the world and then sit back and reap the benefits of competition.

Eighth Grade Rocks crush Long Beach 41-16 to continue unbeaten streak

The St. Stanislaus Eighth Grade Rockchaws and Long Beach Bearcats entered into last Thursday's contest with both teams sporting unblemished 4-0 records.

Using aggressive defense and ball-control offense, the Rocks dominated the first quarter 10-0 and went on to soundly defeat the Bearcats 41-16 at the old SSC gym.

Cedric Smith led all scorers with 17 points followed by Shannon Garrett and Sean Sewell with nine points each. Sewell and Garrett controlled the boards allowing the Bearcats usually only one shot at the goal.

Offensively, the sound leadership of point-guard Greg Schruft allowed SSC to run its offense very effectively against Long Beach's defense.

Also scoring for SSC were Boo Freeman, Roger Maxey, and Chuck Schneider who all had two points apiece.

For Long Beach, Tom Curtins had six points followed by Bob Lyons with five points. Long Beach fell to 4-1, while SSC is now 5-0.

In the Ninth Grade contest, the Rocks let a four-point lead dwindle away in the last minute and a half to go into overtime with the Ninth Grade Bearcats.

Long Beach outscored the Ninth Grade Rocks six to two in the overtime period to claim a 35-31 victory. Mike Lemon scored all six points for Long Beach.

Leading scorer for the Rocks were Jeff Battle with 10 points, followed by Lloyd Nicaud with 7 points. The Ninth Grade is 0-5.

Both teams travel to East Central next Monday for games with the East Central Hornets. Game time is 5 p.m.

Pollution investigation results available in publication

A four-year investigation of pollution levels in Mississippi's coastal waters by two chemists at Gulf Coast Research Laboratory in Ocean Springs has culminated with the publication of the first comprehensive pollution assessment of the entire Mississippi Sound and associated rivers and bays.

Dr. Thomas F. Lytle, GCRL analytical chemistry section head, and Dr. Julia S. Lytle, GCRL environmental chemistry section head, are co-authors of "Pollutant Transport in Mississippi Sound," recently published by the Mississippi-Alabama Sea Grant Consortium, which funded the research project with the Laboratory and the State of Mississippi.

Six areas of concern were addressed by the Lytles in this research effort, including types of pollutants present in the system; where pollutants are found (water, sediments and living organisms); current pollution levels; movement or transport of pollutants; environmental significance of pollution; and use of scientific data to combat the pollution problem.

"Pollution invariably accompanies all types of development, and the Mississippi Gulf Coast is experiencing tremendous growth at the present time," Dr. Thomas Lytle observed. "Because of the economic bonus associated with industrial, residential and petroleum resource expansion, it is unlikely that any real deterrents will be placed in the way of this kind of development."

"Pollution has been viewed in the past as a necessary by-product of progressive growth," he continued. "This unconcerned attitude has been fostered by a lack of comprehensive scientific information to properly assess the impact of an increasing pollution level in Mississippi Sound."

"An essential educational objective of our study has been to let the public know how pollution affects our area, what the scientific community has done to resolve the situation, and what the public can do to support corrective measures aimed at combating pollution," Dr. Julia Lytle explained.

"Through our research, we hope to increase public awareness of pollution and raise the level of concern for the environment, as well as to encourage a more rational view of industry's obligation to control pollution in our area."

Through this research project, the Lytles have been able to compile a significant data base of chemical and geological characteristics of bottom sediments for the entire Mississippi Sound and connecting bays and rivers. In addition, guidelines have been established to assess the problem of polluted sediments and the possible environmental consequences of disturbing these sediments.

In a book designed to be user-oriented, pollution troublespots have been mapped to give coastal planners pollution data in a form which can be easily incorporated into the

Copies of the Lytles' book may be obtained through the Mississippi-Alabama Sea Grant Consortium administrative offices on the GCRL campus in Ocean Springs.

You're being ripped off for more than $20 each year.

By shoplifters.

Last year shoplifters stole between $4 and $5 billion worth of merchandise. That's like stealing over $20 from each American. Shoplifting costs stores - and you - more than merchandise. Prices go up to cover the losses incurred by shoplifting. Dollars spent for special security devices, extra guards, insurance, alarm systems and legal counsel are eventually absorbed by you, the consumer. Stores that do stop thieves do it with the help of law officers who lose countless manhours handling shoplifters. And you, the taxpayer, must foot the bill for prosecuting shoplifters through an already overcrowded court system. How can you help stop this rip off? By being concerned. And informed. By urging your local authorities to crack down on shoplifters. And by reporting any shoplifting activity when you see it.

Everyone pays for shoplifting.

Children's class receives $97,000 grant

A clinical program at the University of Southern Mississippi for children with severe hearing, language and speech disorders has been awarded a $96,960 grant by the state Department of Education.

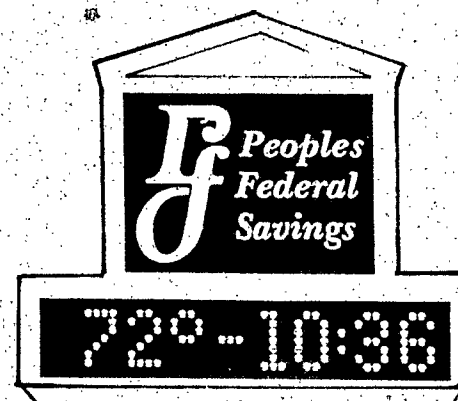

The Minimum Foundation allocation will be used during the regular September-through-May term of the School for Children with Language Disorders for staff salaries and school supplies, according to Dr. Etelle Dubard, director of the school. Dubard is a professor and speech-language pathologist in the USM Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences.

Thirty-three children between the ages of 4-12 years old currently are enrolled in the school. Dubard, along with four full-time and one part-time professional staff members, provide an intensive instructional program in language, speech and primary-elementary level academics to prepare the children to enter regular school programs.

The school, started by Dr. Dubard in 1982, is among a number of clinical programs offered through the Speech and Hearing Sciences Department at USM.

Mitchell-Lane

The First United Methodist Church of Pascagoula was the setting on Dec. 7 for a double-ring ceremony uniting Miss Sandra Suzanne Lane and Royce William Mitchell in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert L. Kates, Pascagoula, and the Rev. Bartis O. Harper of Tylertown.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Lane of Pascagoula. Mr. Mitchell's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Mitchell of Tylertown.

Mrs. Ann Mason, violinist and violist, Miss Tammy Mason, violist, and Mrs. Peggy Blackwell, organist, all of Jackson, Miss., accompanied Mrs. Salena Edwards, soloist, also of Jackson, as she sang "Eternal Life" and "The Lord's Prayer". Mrs. Mason, Miss Mason, and Mrs. Blackwell provided classical selections by Handel, Bach and Young during the seating of guests, and entrance of the mothers and wedding party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an imported silk organza formal gown. The basque bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline and long princess sleeves embellished with delicately detailed patterns of lace, accented with beaded, embroidered appliques. Tiered layers of ruffles and lace insets extended into a cathedral length train. Her headpiece was a silk floral wreath with scattered pearls extending throughout the veil.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses interspersed with red pixie carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath tied with white ribbons.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Sandra Behm of Dallas, Tex.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Randy Bos, Ocean Springs, sister of the groom; Mrs. Henry Laird of Pass Christian, cousin of the bride; Mrs. Steven Stogner, Jackson, sister of the groom; and Miss Susan Miller of Dallas, Tex.

The attendants wore red taffeta formal gowns. Each bodice featured a ruffled sweetheart neckline and long princess sleeves. The softly gathered skirt flowed from a dropped waistline into a full circular skirt. Each attendant wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bride.

Keepsake bouquets of white roses, red pixie carnations, and stephanotis with baby's breath and greenery were carried by the bridesmaids.

The flower girl was Miss Mary Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morgan of Ocean Springs. Her dress, carried by two girls identical to the bridesmaids, Master Allen Randall Bos of Ocean Springs, nephew of the groom and Master Hunter Ford Laird of Pass Christian, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearers.

Best man to the groom was his father, Mr. William Henry Mitchell, of Tylertown.

Groomsmen were Mr. Eric Lane, Pascagoula, brother of the bride; Mr. Steven Stogner, Jackson, brother-in-law of the groom; Mr. Dale Currie, Jackson; Mr. Randy Bos, of Ocean Springs, brother-in-law of the groom; Mr. Slater Barr of New Orleans; Mr. Richard Mills of Jackson; Mr. Frank Melton of Waynesboro; and Mr. David Grady of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lane chose an ankle length dress embellished with tiny seed pearls woven into lace over eggshell silk charmeuse. The lace illusion bodice was accented with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Mitchell wore a tea length dress of sea mist mauve Belgium lace in a flower motif. The Austrian drape tunic was accented with puff tapered sleeves. An orchid corsage completed her ensemble.

The church was decorated with large red poinsettias and greenery with arbors of white candles.

The Longfellow House of Pascagoula was the setting for the reception following the ceremony. The bride's table was covered with a white crocheted lace tablecloth made by the bride's grandmother. Crystal candelabra holding red candles adorned each end of the table.

The Lady Windemere II cake was white and decorated with fresh red flowers and greenery. Serving the cake was Miss Linda Tamez of Dallas, Tex.

Serving the groom's cake was Miss Marijean Haltom of Pascagoula.

Music for the reception was provided by the band "Chemistry" of Jackson.

GOD'S GREAT LOVE
(NO. 4)

By W. Edwin Kearley

God's great love gave the drink: "Should not perish, but have eternal life." The love of God has a twofold purpose. The first is the negative: "Should not perish." God loves us that he may restrain us. Jesus said, "I tell you, nay; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." (Lk. 13:3)

Peter wrote, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." (II Pet. 3:9)

Paul informed, "Or despiseth thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance, and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?" (II Pet. 3:9)

Each individual must respond to God's love in turning away from those things to which Christ is opposed. He must change his affections from the world to Christ. John urged, "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but of the world." (I John 2:15-16)

God refuses to accept a divided allegiance. James said, "Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God." (Jas. 4:4)

The second purpose of God's love is positive: "But have eternal life." Love and life are associated. It is love that gives life. The stream of love is untouched by death. Eternal life is more than eternal existence. Who desires to live forever in the misery of the present evil world? The life we seek is a life of unending bliss.

Because God loves us, we ought to love Him. (I John 4:19) We ought to love Him with our entire being. Jesus quoted Deut. 6:5, "And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength." (Mk. 12:30)

Love, we need to remember, is an expressive thing. Jesus said, "If ye love me, keep my commandments." (John 14:15)

The one who has never become a Christian must believe in Jesus as God's son, repent of his sins, confess faith in Christ before men and be buried with our Lord in baptism and arise from the watery grave to walk a new life. (Rom. 6:3-5)

Will you respond to God's great love?

Clubs, Auxiliaries Friendship Oak Chapter, DAR

Distinguished guest speakers and the awarding of a prestigious medal marked the opening of a meeting of the Friendship Oak Chapter NS DAR on Thursday when the group assembled for lunch at the Long Beach Ramada Inn.

Mrs. William E. O'Hare, state regent of the Mississippi State Society of the NS DAR, in response to a request from the chapter discussed the history, growth and accomplished projects of the Mississippi Daughters.

There are now 84 Mississippi chapters of the NS DAR with a membership of approximately 6,000.

This patriotic organization fosters historical, patriotic and educational endeavors. The first Mississippi chapter was organized in Natchez on May 5, 1896, and the newest chapter, the Tallahala, was chartered in Ellisville on Nov. 4, 1983, Mrs. O'Hare said.

The Friendship Oak Chapter was organized March 31, 1983 and has grown from 13 chapter members to a current roster of 26.

Mrs. Dale Kelly Love, a candidate for state regent for the 1986-89 term, spoke on the importance of preserving early Mississippi history.

She encouraged members to locate and mark revolutionary soldiers' graves. For the past 11 years Mrs. Love has been a member of the John Rolfe Chapter in Hattiesburg where she served as chairman of DAR Good Citizens, the Flag of the U.S., motion picture, radio and T.V. programs, Public Relations and Outstanding American History Teacher committees. She was elected to the regency.

Miss Martha Van Peski of Bay St. Louis was awarded the DAR Americanism Medal. While pinning the award on Miss Van Peski Mrs.

O'Hare said: "This medal is rare and the first of its kind I have had the privilege of awarding. I do not expect to have this honor again. The Americanism Medal requirements are difficult to achieve and are limited to naturalized citizens." Born in Golfito, Costa Rica, Ms. Van Peski lived in La Lima, Honduras and Puerto Barrios, Guatemala before coming to the United States.

She was introduced by her sponsor, Mrs. Nunez (Joe) Pilet who serves the Friendship Oak Chapter as chairman of the DAR Manual for Citizenship. Mrs. Pilet said: "Martha has lived in our community for 26 years. She is data processing supervisor for Coast Electric and an active member of many civic and church related organizations. She volunteers her services where needed."

A message received from the national chairman of Americanism and DAR Manual, Mrs. Ben D. Sasportas said: "I am delighted to approve Martha Van Peski for the Americanism Medal. You selected a fine candidate."

Corsages and gifts were presented to the speakers and all those attending the luncheon wore carnations, given by Miss Virginia Watt in memory of her relative, Mrs. Elise Beauchamp, whose DAR membership was with the Bill of Rights Chapter, Westmoreland County, Va.

Guests included Mrs. Mary Ella Greenway of Biloxi and Mrs. Frances McKendricks of Florida.

The next regular meeting of the Friendship Oak Chapter is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 11, at 11:30 a.m. at the Ramada Inn of Long Beach. Mrs. James Thomas will present an historical program titled "Museum Docent." Mrs. Nunez Pilet serves as hostess.

DAR's National Americanism medal awarded to Van Peski

By Joe Pilet
Friendship Oak
Chapter DAR
Americanism and Citizenship Chairman

Martha Van Peski has made my impossible dream come true! She has reached the unreachable star!

On Thursday, Dec. 5, during a luncheon given by the Friendship Oak Chapter NS DAR at the Long Beach Ramada Inn, Mrs. Ann O'Hare, state regent, presented Ms. Van Peski with the prestigious National Americanism Medal. And Ms. Van Peski received it with her characteristic grace and humility.

Requirements for this award are somewhere between difficult and impossible. It takes years of faithful service in community work. But that's not the starting point, nor the end of requirements. Let's review it.

"This Medal with the accompanying Certificate, may be awarded to a naturalized adult citizen who has demonstrated outstanding ability in leadership, trustworthiness, patriotism, and service to our country."

During my several years as chairman of our citizenship committee I have worked with many fine people and felt rewarded when they became naturalized citizens.

I have watched them master the English language, find employment, and in some cases start businesses of their own.

I have been impressed with their obvious love of this country and of our Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Martha Van Peski is the first that it has been my privilege to sponsor for the National Award.

She has been outstanding in her participation in community affairs and has been an example for others foreign born.

When it was known in our community that Martha Van Peski was a candidate for the Americanism Medal and endorsements or recommendations were required from prominent citizens an impressive number of letters arrived.

Letters from our library director, from our newspapers, banks, other naturalized citizens, church groups, and from the heads of the many organizations where Martha serves including United Way, Home Extension Club, Altrusa, and Laubach Literary Guild.

The letter of support from Martha's employer, Harry Thomas, general manager of Coast Electric Power Association, completed those requirements.

Proof of patriotism was evident in a unique way when our highly respected citizen, Martha's father A. C. Fred Van Peski, died recently. An obituary appeared in our local paper closing with "The family requests that memorials be made to the fund for the restoration of the Statue of Liberty."

Generous contributions were received and acknowledgments from The Statue of Liberty Foundation Inc. received with the well-worded message:

"Be it known to all who see this document that a contribution has been made to restore the world's symbol of freedom in memory of A. C. Fred Van Peski. Through this memorial gift, the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island will be saved, protected and preserved so that future generations throughout the world will see the symbol of Liberty's light burning brightly."

Martha Van Peski has been in our community for 26 years. She was born in Golfito, Costa Rica, and previous residences were La Lima, Honduras, and Puerto Barrios, Guatemala. Her education includes St. Joseph's Academy and Pearl River Junior College with extended education during night classes in many subjects, including wood working, powder puff mechanics, piano, and belly dancing!

Her inquiring mind explores all fields.

Daily bike rides keep her trim for the vigorous life this energetic woman leads.

Mrs. Ben D. Sasportas, national chairman for the DAR Americanism and Manual for Citizenship, wrote "The application and recommendations for Award of the DAR Americanism Medal has been approved. Friendship Oak Chapter has picked a winner for this prestigious award."

Overdue books a serious problem in Coast libraries

The problem of long-term overdue library materials was the subject of a meeting held recently by three coast library administrators at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library.

Kay Covode, head librarian at the Pass Christian Library, Long Beach library director, Dixie Stevens, and Prima Wusnack, director of the Hancock County Library System met to discuss strategies in dealing with what they term is a serious problem.

"We think the average taxpayer and library user are unaware of the losses caused by persons 'borrowing' materials and failing to return them," said Long Beach librarian Dixie Stevens.

"We're not talking about the person who inadvertently forgets to return an item. The problem is with people who repeatedly ignore notices, bills or phone calls—or who leave town with library materials."

Covode, head librarian of the Pass Christian Library since August, said she was overwhelmed at the severity of the problem at her community's library.

"In 1984 alone," said Covode, "more than $8,000 worth of materials were not returned. That means we lost more than one-third of our 1984 budget for the purchase of new books."

Stevens and Wusnack report similar losses of books and erosion to their book budgets over the years. In fact, the American Library Association estimates that eleven million public library books valued at $220 million dollars are lost each year to individuals who fail to return them.

"We want the materials we purchase with public funds to be available when needed by the public," said Wusnack. "It's very discouraging to discover all the books on a particular subject are overdue and notices sent to the delinquent borrowers have been ignored or have been returned with no forwarding address."

According to the library administrators, notices, letters, telephone calls, unconditional amnesty and even going to people's homes have not worked. "We must establish procedures for dealing with the problem when our conventional methods have failed," said Covode.

NORDA's new CSO worked in both the Operations and Program Integration Departments at CNOC from April 1983 until July 1985. During the last year, he served as Mapping, Charting and Geodesy Programs Officer.
